Re: Bechtle v. County of Delaware; Civ. A. No. 20-5803

Dear Judge Baylson:

I am lead counsel to Plaintiff in this employment discrimination case. The Court has already denied Defendant's motion for summary judgment.

I write to ask for a teleconference at the Court's earliest opportunity so that a trial date may be fixed, along with the attendant pre-trial deadlines.

My client is 72 years of age. He seeks reinstatement to his position as Assistant Public Defender should he prevail. If a trial is extensively delayed, this remedy of returning to his job could be permanently compromised.

Respectfully submitted,
